Every monument contractor must acquaint himself with complete stonework regulations for Catholic Cemeteries - Diocese of Rockville Centre which can be procured by contacting the cemetery office or at www.holyroodcemetery.org/monument.pdf.

Foundation or inscription fee in full must accompany application.

Original Certificate of Right of Burial is accepted as authorization for monument work, and will be returned to the dealer with approved application. It is the responsibility of the monument dealer to return the Certificate to the customer as soon as possible. It is not to be held in lieu of payment.

All monument setters and sandblasters must have an approved insurance certificate on file with the cemetery office. Contractor is responsible for damage caused to any plot, planting or monument. It is the right of the cemetery authorities to deny permission to enter the premises to any contractor not complying with regulations or instructions of cemetery authorities.

The principal symbol of each monument is the cross, and this symbol must not be hidden or dwarfed by any other symbol or decorative feature. Please consult regulations for permitted symbols.

PLEASE SHOW SKETCH ON REAR OF APPLICATION. SKETCH MUST BE TO SCALE SHOWING ALL SIZES AND DIMENSIONS, AND DETAIL OF INSCRIPTIONS AND ORNAMENTATION.
